

AFD Optional Retail and Lifestyle Waivers

The terms and conditions in Sections A, B and C below will only apply (as applicable) if you have elected and been approved for one or more of the Waivers described in those sections.

There is no obligation on you to purchase a Waiver. It is completely at your discretion.

If you have elected and been approved for a Waiver then in return for you paying the Consideration, we agree to waive our rights to collect certain payments from you under certain circumstances and under certain terms and conditions as detailed below.

Sections A, B and C below set out the terms and conditions of the AFD Optional Retail and Lifestyle Waivers.

The AFD Optional Retail and Lifestyle Waivers provide for us to waive certain payments if the Vehicle is stolen or destroyed, or you are unable to make repayments under the Loan because of death, Terminal Illness, Accident or sickness, Redundancy, or bankruptcy.

* You means the customer/borrower who is purchasing the vehicle*

Section A: Retail waiver

1. Total loss

(a) If you have paid the Consideration and you have, at your cost, obtained and maintained a Comprehensive Motor Vehicle Insurance Policy then, if:

(i) The Vehicle becomes a Total Loss before the Agreement has been repaid in full; and

(ii) We receive a Total Loss Payment for the Vehicle under that Comprehensive Motor Vehicle Insurance Policy, You will not have to pay any shortfall between the Balance Outstanding and the Total Loss Payment unless that shortfall exceeds $5,000.00. If that shortfall exceeds $5,000.00 you must pay the excess of the shortfall to AFD immediately,

(b) You must also immediately pay the policy excess on the Comprehensive Motor Vehicle Insurance Policy and any arrears of or additional premiums due under that policy, as well as any amounts payable under the Agreement because of default by you.

2. Added benefits

Should you choose a replacement vehicle following the Total Loss through our authorized dealer network and seek finance through us, we will also make allowances for up to $500.00 towards:

- The excess paid by you under the Comprehensive Motor Vehicle Insurance Policy.
- A deposit, the delivery charges and registration costs of the replacement vehicle.

3. Notification

Immediately following a Total Loss, you must notify us in writing at P O Box 137252. Parnell. Auckland 1151 or email claims@autofinancedirect.co.nz.

Section B: Lifestyle waiver:

1. Death repayment waiver

(a) Should you die during the term of your Agreement then, so long as your executor provides us with a copy of your death certificate within 6 months of your death, we will waive all future payments as from the date of your death. However, any amounts accrued and unpaid at the date of your death, and any arrears, default interest charges, and default fees unpaid at that date are specifically excluded from the Waiver and remain payable by you.

(b) The executor of your estate must notify us that you have died within 6 months of your death. A death certificate must be provided to us.

2. Terminal illness repayment waiver

(a) Should you be diagnosed with a Terminal Illness at any time during the term of your Agreement then, so long as you provide us with the written certificate referred to in paragraph (b) below within 6 months of your diagnosis, we will waive all future payments as from the date of your diagnosis. However, any amounts accrued and unpaid at the date of your diagnosis, and any arrears, default interest charges and default fees unpaid at that date are specifically excluded from the Waiver and remain payable by you.

(b) To establish Terminal Illness, you must produce a written certificate from an independent Registered Medical Practitioner recording the diagnosis and stating that you have a Terminal Illness. No Claim will be considered under this Waiver unless and until you have provided this written certificate.

3. Accident & sickness repayment waiver

(a) Should you suffer an Accident or contract an Illness after the Commencement Date which prevents you from engaging in or attending Full-time employment for more than 7 consecutive days from the date when you first consulted a Registered Medical Practitioner about the Accident or Illness, we will waive the daily amount payable under the Agreement commencing from the 8th day after you first consulted a Registered Medical Practitioner about the Accident or Illness for each day you are prevented from engaging in or attending Full-time employment until the Agreement is repaid or discharged.

(b) The daily amount payable will be calculated by dividing the total amount of the monthly, fortnightly or weekly instalments (excluding residual or "balloon" payments) by the number of days comprising the term of the Agreement up to a maximum amount of $5,000.00 or the balance of the amount outstanding under the Agreement (whichever is the lesser).

4. Redundancy repayment waiver

(a) Should you be made redundant (and this was unforeseen) from your Full-time employment at any time during the term of your Agreement (subject to clause c of this section 4), we will waive our rights to collect the daily amount payable under the Agreement for each day you are unemployed until the Agreement is repaid or discharged after the first 30 days of unemployment.

(b) Redundancy means where your position of Full-time employment has become superfluous to the needs of the employer. Redundancy begins when you register as unemployed with Work and Income New Zealand and ends when you commence Full-time employment with another or the same employer.

(c) The daily amount payable will be calculated by dividing the total amount of the monthly, fortnightly or weekly instalments (excluding residual or "balloon" payments) by the number of days comprising the term of the Agreement up to a maximum of:

(i) 180 days of redundancy or the sum of $10,000.00 (whichever is the lesser) where you have been engaged in Full-time employment for at least 12 consecutive months before you registered as unemployed with Work and Income New Zealand: or

(ii) 90 days of redundancy or the sum of $5,000.00 (whichever is the lesser) where you have been engaged in Full-time employment for less than 12 consecutive months before you registered as unemployed with Work and Income New Zealand.

5. Bankruptcy repayment waiver

(a) If you are Self-employed and during the term of your Agreement you are adjudicated bankrupt by a court, or if you are employed by a company over which you have direct financial control and that company goes into liquidation, we will waive the repayment of the daily amount payable under the Agreement for each day you are bankrupt or the company is in liquidation.

(b) The daily amount payable will be calculated by dividing the total amount of the monthly, fortnightly or weekly instalments (excluding residual or "balloon" payments) by the number of days comprising the term of the Agreement, up to a maximum of 180 days from the date of adjudication or liquidation or earlier if the Agreement is repaid or discharged. The maximum amount we will waive under this section is $10,000.00 or the balance of the Agreement whichever is the lesser.

6. Exclusions

Section C: Terms and conditions applying to optional retail waiver and lifestyle waiver

1. Conditions

- (a) These Waivers have been offered to you on the basis that you have disclosed all relevant information to us. If you have failed to provide all relevant information, or have given any information incorrectly or untruthfully, we may void these Waivers and refuse to consider any Claim.
- (b) When making a Claim you must disclose to us all information relevant to the Event. If you fail to provide all relevant information, or have given any information incorrectly or untruthfully, we may refuse your Claim. If any Claim is made fraudulently, the Waivers will be voided and you will forfeit any entitlement to the Waivers.

2. Claims

- (a) You should make a Claim under a Retail Waiver immediately the event occurs and under a Lifestyle Waiver as soon as possible but no later than 28 days after an Event (except for Death: refer to clause lb.). To make a Claim contact us at PO Box 137252, Parnell, Auckland 1151 or e-mail claims@autofinancedirect.co.nz
- (b) To make a Claim under a Waiver, you must complete a Claim form and provide us with all the information we require. You must assist us with your Claim in any way we request. You are responsible for providing any certificates or other evidence we may ask for to support your Claim at your expense. We may require you to undertake a separate or additional medical examination for our confidential information at our expense.
- (c) As soon as possible after sustaining an injury or contracting an illness you must consult a Registered Medical Practitioner and follow their advice and treatment at your expense.
- (d) All successful Claims under a Waiver(s) are a forgiving of payment due under the Agreement between you and us: therefore, there will be no payments of any kind made to you. However rebates of the unused portion of the Consideration will be made in accordance with the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 and the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Regulations 2004 in the event that you discharge the Agreement early.
- (e) We may amend the terms and conditions of a Waiver with your written consent. We can make amendments required by law without your consent.

3. Termination

- (a) The availability of these Waivers will automatically terminate if:
- The Agreement expires or is repaid early.
 - Ownership of the Vehicle is transferred to a third party not named on the Agreement.
- (b) In addition, we are entitled to immediately, and at our sole discretion, void these Waivers from the Commencement Date or terminate these Waivers immediately and decline any Claim if:
- You breach the duty of disclosure you owe to us:
 - Before these Waivers come into force you make a material misrepresentation to us:
 - You fail to comply with a provision of a Waiver: or
 - You make, or anyone acting on your behalf, makes a dishonest Claim under a Waiver. If we do so, we will credit a proportional rebate of the Consideration against the Balance Outstanding in accordance with the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 and the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Regulations 2004

4. Cancellation

(a) By you:

You may cancel a Waiver by writing to us within 7 days of signing the Agreement in which case we will credit the Consideration against the Balance Outstanding. In addition, you may cancel a Waiver at any time by giving us notice in writing in which case we will credit a proportional rebate of the Consideration against the Balance Outstanding in accordance with the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 and the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Regulations 2004; however, no rebate will be given if a Claim has already been paid under the Waiver.

(b) By us:

We may cancel a Waiver at any time by giving 14 days' notice in writing to you in which case we will credit a proportional rebate of the Consideration against the Balance Outstanding in accordance with the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 and the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Regulations 2004.

Statement of right to cancel

You are entitled to cancel this agreement by giving written notice to the Lender.

Time limits for cancellation

If the disclosure documents are handed to you directly you must give notice that you intend to cancel within 5 Working Days of the statement date on the front of this Agreement.

If the disclosure documents are sent to you by electronic means (for example: email) you must give notice that you intend to cancel within 7 Working Days after the electronic communication is sent.

If the documents are mailed to you, you must give the notice within 9 Working Days after they were posted. Saturdays, Sundays, and national public holidays are not counted as Working Days.

How to cancel

To cancel, you must give written notice that you intend to cancel the Agreement by:

- (a) Giving notice to the Lender or an employee or agent of the Lender: or
- (b) Posting the notice to the Lender or an agent of the Lender: or
- (c) Emailing the notice to the Lender's email address (if specified on the front of this Agreement): or
- (d) Sending the notice to the Lender's fax number (if specified on the front of this Agreement).

You must also return to the Lender any advance and any other property received by you under this Agreement.

What you may have to pay if you cancel?

If you cancel this Agreement the Lender can charge you:

- (a) The amount of any reasonable expenses the Lender had to pay in connection with this Agreement and its cancellation (including legal fees and fees for credit reports. etc.): and
- (b) Interest for the period from the day you received the advance until the day you repay the advance.

This statement only contains a summary of your rights and obligations about the right to cancel. If there is anything about your rights or obligations under the Credit Contracts and Consumer Finance Act 2003 that you do not understand, if there is a dispute about your rights, or if you think that the Lender is being unreasonable in any way, you should seek legal advice immediately.

False / Fraudulent Claims

You or anyone acting on your behalf must not make a Claim that is false or fraudulent in any way, or make any false or incorrect statement in connection with any Claim. If any Claim is fraudulent or dishonest in any respect, all benefits under your Waiver will be forfeited.

Governing Law

The laws of New Zealand apply to this Agreement. Any proceedings relating to this Agreement must be brought and heard in New Zealand.
